Jagdschloss Grunewald

A place where time seems to pass more slowly. Surrounded by old trees and the quiet beauty of its historic grounds, the hunting lodge has opened its courtyard every Whitsun since 2011, letting music, nature and history enter into a lively dialogue.

Getting there

By bus

Bus 115 · X10 · X83 to Clayallee, corner of Königin-Luise-Straße, then a 15-minute walk through the forest. Journey planner at BVG

By car

Via Clayallee into Hüttenweg as far as the Paulsborn restaurant; the car park with 130 spaces is on the right. From there it is a 300-metre walk.

The way back to the bus is not lit; a torch helps. The path to the car park is lit after the concert. Jagdschloss Grunewald, Hüttenweg 100, 14193 Berlin.

Questions and answers

Does the concert take place in bad weather?

Yes, in almost any weather. Whether it is cancelled or delayed is decided by the organiser on site shortly before the start. There is hardly any shelter, so please bring rainwear.

What should I bring?

Clothing for sun or rain, a cushion and blanket, sturdy shoes for the forest path and a torch. Evenings by the lake get chilly even in fine weather.

Are dogs welcome?

Yes, provided your dog stays calm during the concert and is not afraid of crowds.

Is the courtyard wheelchair accessible?

Partly. The concert seating in the courtyard is accessible to wheelchair users with assistance.

Is there food and drink?

Yes. Catering in the courtyard is open from 6 pm and during the intervals. Catering is not included in the ticket price.

Can I visit the museum in the hunting lodge?

From 2027, Jagdschloss Grunewald and its Cranach exhibition will only be open to visitors on certain occasions. Whether the museum will be open at Whitsun has not yet been decided.
